

Maybelle the Cockroach Live Action Video Rubric

MISD 2011

School Name:			Teacher Name:
Student Names: (up to 4)
Category	4	3	2	1	Subtotal
Content	Video establishes a purpose early on and maintains a clear focus throughout	Video establishes a purpose and maintains focus for most of the presentation	Lapses in focus are few and the purpose is somewhat clear	The focus / purpose of the presentation is unclear
Creativity	Complete originality exists in the composition and delivery, and there is strong evidence of critical thinking skills	Most elements of the composition and delivery are original, and there is some evidence of critical thinking skills	Few elements of the composition and delivery are original, and there is little evidence of critical thinking skills	The elements of the composition and delivery are not original, and it lacks evidence of critical thinking skills
Planning	Complete and detailed evidence of planning exists throughout the entire video including sequencing, pacing, and consistent storytelling	Most of the planning is evident and exists throughout the video including sequencing, pacing, and storytelling	Some planning is evident and exists in the video including sequencing, pacing, and storytelling	Little or no evidence of the planning exists in sequencing, pacing, and storytelling
Cinematography	Strong use of quality cinematography exists and adds overall impact to the presentation	Most of the cinematographic tools used add to the overall impact of the presentation	Some of the cinematographic tools used add to the overall impact of the presentation	There is little evidence that cinematographic tools have been used in the presentation
Self Reflection	Work was equally shared among all group members	Work was mostly shared among all group members	Work was completed by some group members	Work was completed individually
Final Score					